1. DISCUSSION ITEMS

None

2. REPORT OF VILLAGE SERVICES DIRECTOR

A line has to be dug for the lights for the trees by Target. There are 250-400 loads of dirt going out each day. Public Works has worked at Playfield Park in preparation for the Tinley Creek project. Carpet for the Rec Center is going out to bid, work is progressing on outside landscaping and ordering new equipment for the workout room. We now have a storm sewer map that is updated. There was a meeting today for the project at 135th & Central. Still looking for lawn mowers and a trailer. The loaner street sweeper was received today. Public Works will start seal cracking this week on the Rec Center parking lot, followed by the Village Hall, then the streets.

3. REPORT OF VILLAGE CLERK

Distributed to the Board an Ordinance for their review regarding Village rights related to locally imposed sales taxes.

4. REPORT OF MAYOR ON PENDING MATTERS

The Mayor asked if everyone received the LED light information. All wooden poles are Com Ed's and will have LED lights.

5. REPORT OF VILLAGE ATTORNEY AND PRESENTATION OF ORDINANCES FOR REVIEW

None

6. UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Trustee Flynn asked when the audit will be finished.

Trustee Madlener asked about the Ordinance with TCC.

7. NEW BUSINESS

Trustee Flynn asked if all the sports clubs are cooperating with the Village regarding the Village paying registration fees. The Mayor is still waiting to hear from soccer. Governor's State College is interested in using the baseball stadium. Daniel McCloughan is interested in the stadium for fantasy baseball.

We might be getting a million dollar grant for the parking lot by the stadium, including the Biela Center.

Still talking with Oremus about a dome.

Trustee Flynn asked about the parking lot by the old Ace Hardware, there may be a cash buyer around Feb. 1st, 2016.

We are talking with WalMart regarding overnight parking.

Crestwood Terrace is working with their neighbors regarding fences.
